Then Pilate took Jesus and _____ him. And the soldiers twisted together a crown of _____ and put it on his head and arrayed him in a purple _____. They came up to him, saying, "Hail, _____ of the Jews!" and _____ him with their hands. (John 19:1-3)

So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own _____, to the place called The Place of a _____, which in Aramaic is called _____. There they _____ him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. (John 19:16b-18)

After these things Joseph of _____, who was a _____ of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. _____ also, who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds in weight. So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a _____, and in the garden a new _____ in which no one had yet been laid. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid _____ there. (John 19:38-42)
